

GOVT536

Regulatory Policy

Advance your career in regulation with a university course endorsed by the Ministry for Regulation

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY OF
WELLINGTON
TE HERENGA WAKA

Ministry for Regulation
Te Manatū Waeture

START DATE

July each year (13 July 2026)

DURATION

12 weeks (1 trimester)

FORMAT

4 block sessions, in-person or Zoom
(13 Jul, 3 Aug, 24 Aug, 14 Sep in 2026)

CREDITS

15 (about 150 hours of study)

DOMESTIC FEES

~ $2,200

WHO SHOULD ENROL?

- Senior analysts, advisors, or managers working in regulatory agencies
- Regulatory professionals looking to build system awareness and leadership potential

WHY TAKE THIS COURSE

- Develop strategic thinking. Master how regulatory policy is developed, implemented, and evaluated in New Zealand and internationally
- Apply modern tools. Use contemporary frameworks, case studies and AI tools to tackle real regulatory challenges in your agency
- Study flexibly. Earn a standalone Certificate of Proficiency or 15 credits toward a certificate/degree in public policy
- Network with experts. Meet eminent guest lecturers and study with other regulatory professionals

The Ministry for Regulation and the Wellington School of Business and Government are working to ensure the course content reflects best practice, emerging trends, and the real challenges regulators face.

The School is open to developing customised internal training options for agencies.

MORE INFORMATION wgtn.ac.nz/courses/govt/536

Applications: Professional Programmes Office

GOVT536 course: Denny Kudrna, School of Government

Regulatory capability: Alex McMinn, Ministry for Regulation

ppo@vuw.ac.nz

denny.kudrna@vuw.ac.nz

systemcapability@regulation.govt.nz